

LOOK BACK

Get to know you.

Share light refreshments. Go around the group and introduce yourselves and talk through this question: “What is an invention that you’re glad was made before you were born?” *

Follow up.

Did you get to share with someone about Jesus or what He has done in your life?
How else did you obey God this last week?

Vision. Jesus said, “Go make disciples of all the nations.” The purpose of our Life Group is: To help people become Believers in Jesus who become Disciples of Jesus who become Disciple Makers.

LOOK UP

In the passage we look at today, the disciple John describes what Jesus looked like and what Jesus said to him. This is the introduction to the book of Revelation, the last book in the Bible. Before we read it, let’s pray that God to speak to each of us.

Pray.

Read. We will read through passage three times and then discuss it, so listen carefully.
Get three people to read Revelation 1:12-18. **

Discuss these questions, one at a time, encouraging everyone who wants to respond to do so.
Remind the group: Keep your answers based just on this passage.

1. What stands out or surprises you in this passage?
2. What does it show us about people and choices we can make?
How would you describe John’s reaction to seeing Jesus?
3. What does this passage show us about God?
How does is this different from the way you usually think of Jesus?
Jesus told John, “Do not be afraid.” What does it show about Jesus?
4. How does this make you feel? Why?

LOOK FORWARD

As disciples of Jesus, we want to follow Jesus in whatever way He is leading us today. We’re going to pray silently for one minute. Pray something like this:

“Lord Jesus, what do you want me to do with what You are showing me?” [1 min. silent prayer]

Share. Would anyone like to share your answer to these questions:

1. How will you obey what God is saying to you through this passage?
2. Who does God want you to tell what Jesus has done in your life?

Closing Prayer

Pray something like: “Lord, prepare the hearts of the people we will be sharing the Good News of Jesus with this week. And give us strength and joy as we follow You. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”

* Use a different “icebreaker” if you prefer.

 Reading from different translations often helps.
